

Operational & Financial Tracking Dashboard

Presented by Nurain Balqis

Sole Data & Operation Analyst (Handling HR, Finance, Office Management)

Project Overview & The Daily Process

My Role : Petty Cash Manager & Operational Analyst

Daily workflow:

- Receiving a daily cash budget from the business owner.
- Disbursing cash directly to field workers for company needs like vehicle fuel, project supplies and miscellaneous operational costs.
- Verifying and collecting physical receipts for every Ringgit spent to protect company cash from leakage.

- Transformed hundreds of unstructured, handwritten physical receipts into clean, relational database tables.
- Deployed dynamic matrix structures to instantly map Worker Outflows against Cost Categories (Minyak, Kasaran, Barang).
- Replaced slow, manual month-end tracking with a dynamic, week-by-week fluid transaction log.
- Serves as the automated backend processor that handles complex calculations seamlessly behind the scenes.

Dynamic Data Aggregation Engine

From Raw Chaos to Multi-Dimensional Relational Summaries

Executive Visual Intelligence

- Centralized KPI Control: Beams critical metrics to leadership with a 0% error rate:
 - Total Spend: RM 26,935.00
 - Top Driver: Minyak (48.83%)
 - Daily Burn Rate: RM 1,417.63
- Built a Worker Claim Leaderboard that instantly flags Worker 9 as a massive cost outlier (RM 5,010.00 / ~33% of claims) for targeted audits.
- Charts daily operational volatility to track extreme spikes like the record peak on March 12th (RM 2,844.40) to predict weekly capital reserves.
- Integrated dynamic slicers so non-technical management can filter dates or categories instantly.

Interactive Cash Flow & Surveillance Dashboard

Empowering Zero-Guidance Leadership with Clear Visual Intelligence

Business Impact

- Prevented missing cash or unexplained spending among field workers who aren't used to office management.
- Kept clean financial records so that when the company grows or files taxes, all transactions are mapped perfectly back to dates and names.
- Allowed my boss to step back from micro-managing petty cash, trusting your dashboard to give a clear summary of operational costs at a glance.
